A $100,000 boost

Glik donation starts Youth Center drive

By Bob State
Staff writer

For more than 90 years, the Glik family has been clothing young people in the Metro East.

Now, Joe Glik wants to give something back. Glik has pledged to donate $100,000 to the Mayor's Youth Center in Granite City.

"It's our way of thanking the community for their support of our family's business for more than 90 years," Glik said.

"I hope the recreation center will benefit the young people of Granite City for many years to come."

The youth center is the dream of Mayor Ron Selp.

Selp was overjoyed by the Glik donation.

"The benevolence of the Glik family far exceeds our wildest dreams for the kickoff of our youth center drive," Selp said.

"The donation shows the concern the Glik family has for Granite City, its young people and its future. It exemplifies the need and shows the importance of such a facility," Selp said.

Apartment complex plans abandoned

By Scott Cousins
Staff writer

Citizen complaints from area residents, a Missouri company is abandoning plans to build a $3.1 million 48-unit apartment complex next to Word of Life Tabernacle on Maryland Road.

Local residents had mounted a petition against the development, citing problems with the poor drainage and the area's appearance.

Some residents had also been concerned about the type of tenants the development would attract.

One of the drive's supporters, Helen Hawkins, said all the people collecting petitions deserved credit for the announcement.

'Dirty merf' impresses officials

Dirty markets called plentiful, 2A

By Bob State
Staff writer

When it comes to selecting a recycling facility for Madison County, the public is believing for Granite City. Officials of seven Granite City officials traveled to Medina County, Ohio last week to tour a mixed waste materials recovery facility (merf) there.

"We think the county has convinced me that the mixed waste merf is the way to go," said Terry Kelahan, superintendent of the Granite City Wastewater Treatment Plant.

Mayor Ron Selp and Kelahan took a tour of the Medina County Solid Waste District's Central Processing Facility, built and operated by Norton Environmental, a private waste management systems and services company.

Other city officials viewing the facility last week were Alderman Nick Petrillo, chairman of the City Council's Sanitation Committee; aldermen Bob Shiple, Bob Page, Kim Kettner, Shirley Crittes; and City Clerk Judy Whitaker.

A state law mandates that municipalities reduce the waste sent to landfills by 25 percent by the summer of 1996.

Madison County officials have tried to coordinate the effort to comply with the law and the County Board's Environmental Committee is recommending a curbside recycling plan which includes a clean merf — a $3 million facility will accept and process recyclable materials presented by residents. County officials estimate that residents would pay about $2 per month more in hauling fees if the clean merf plan is implemented.

But Norton Environmental — which submitted a bid on the proposed county recycling facility — is trying to convince municipal officials that a privately-owned, $8 million mixed-waste facility (or dirty merf) would capture a larger percentage of the waste stream more conveniently for residents and at the same cost to residents as the curbside plan.

"If (the mixed-waste merf) can meet the state mandate for recycling, divert a larger percentage of the waste stream from landfills, do it for the same cost as a curbside recycling program) and more conveniently for residents, why would the county want to implement a curbside program?" asked Louis Perez, vice president of marketing for Norton Environmental.

Perez said the mixed waste system can't compete with curbside programs — virtually impossible with curbside programs because recyclable materials are recovered directly from residential and commercial garbages.

SEMC doctor discusses cholesterol, diet

Heart disease remains top cause of death

Diseases of the heart and blood vessels are still the leading cause of death, accounting for 1,024,630 deaths a year, according to Dr. George Williams. Cancer is a distant second.

"We are making progress," Williams said during a discussion on "Cholesterol, Diet and You" at a recent brown-bag lunch presentation at St. Elizabeth Medical Center. "There are new treatment methods, for example, encouraging heart patients to exercise and make other lifestyle changes. The deaths from cardiovascular disease per population have become 15 percent lower since 1980."

Williams said many people have the feeling that anything that tastes good must be bad for you. In many instances this is true. Previous generations ate a lot of rich foods that were very high in calories and fat. In a farming population where tremendous amounts of calories were burned each day, that was acceptable.

However, lifestyles have changed. Americans are beginning to change. Americans eat 30 percent less beef than they did in the '60s, Williams said.

Williams said the trend is to go from after-the-fact treatment to preventing heart disease from developing.

One of the main culprits in heart disease is high blood cholesterol. As cholesterol levels increase, so does the incidence of heart disease.

"This doesn't mean we should eliminate cholesterol entirely," Williams said. "If cholesterol levels are too low, the incidence of other diseases increases."

The lowest recommended cholesterol level is 150. People are considered at high risk for developing heart disease if their levels are 200 or above.

The first approach to controlling high cholesterol was medication. However, there were problems with patients not wanting to take the medication.

In addition, some cholesterol-lowering medication was associated with developing cancer and there were other side effects. Finally, the cholesterol medication was very expensive in comparison to the changes it caused.

Physicians found that excess weight loss, a change in diet and medications can increase levels of HDL cholesterol.

Weight reduction is used, it must be in conjunction with diet changes to be effective.

Williams recommends a diet of moderation. Total fat intake should be no more than 30 percent of total calories.

"After four to six weeks, we check cholesterol levels and then measure again twice a year," Williams said. "Some studies say it takes about nine weeks for changes to show."

Other risk factors that should be controlled include high blood pressure, obesity and high blood cholesterol.

"Over time, lifestyle change does work. But the treatment must be active. Patients will not comply with it." For 1995, I recommend moderation," Williams said.

Pruning

from the experts at remove branches back to a branch point. Make the cut nearly flush with the main branch.

Prune for Rejuvenation

Pruning is a gardening chore many people don't relish. They'd like to simply forget it. Unfortunately, many do just that. True, it isn't one of the most glamorous jobs involved in gardening, but it isn't the least either. Perhaps many forget about pruning because they're not really sure how it's done. We're going to change that.

Why bother to prune at all? There are three main reasons; health, appearance and safety. Let's start with the first, health. Dead, weak or damaged wood must be removed to keep the plant healthy. Many insects and diseases love this kind of wood because it's easy for them to get into. Also, pruning stimulates new growth.

Appearance. Gardeners prune to maintain nice, shapely trees and shrubs. Some go so far as to create works of art, sort of sculptures in shrubbery.

Safety. oversized plants and branches may interfere with power lines and visibility. Dead, weak, diseased or damaged branches can become hazards to other plants, our homes and ourselves. Getting smacked on the head by a low-hanging branch might be funny... if it happened to one of the Three Stooges. Real-life victims, however, fail to see such humor and could be seriously injured.

Now that we've discussed the whys, we'll tell you the hows. First of all, you should know that every time you prune, you are wounding the plant. Pruning is actually a surgical procedure. Plants have defenses that rush to the injured area and stand guard. When plants heal, get set to injure them. But unlike us, plants don't cover the wounded area with new tissue. Instead, the new tissue seals off and surrounds the wounded area as the plant ages.

Prune to Thin

Thinning reduces the number of shoots and allows remaining branches to develop fullness, allows light and air to penetrate interior branches. This encourages vigorous, new growth from the plant's crown. To thin plants, selectively remove entire stems or

Low-Fat Pig Out here March 16

How many chances do you get to prevent cancer? Every time you eat.

This year, the Great American Low-Fat Pig Out encourages the next generation to eat healthy. Tweens (the nine- to 12-year-old group) are invited to "pig-out" on the American Cancer Society's healthy, tasty and fun events in their communities.

Modeled after the Great American Smoke-Out, the Great American Low-Fat Pig Out is an annual, light-hearted celebration of the foods that can reduce the risk of cancer. March 16 marks the American Cancer Society's day-long celebration of good-for-you foods.

On low-fat, pig-out day, the American Cancer Society joins with schools, hospitals, businesses, grocery stores and restaurants across Illinois to encourage people to "pig-out" on foods rich in fiber, high in fiber, rich in Vitamins A, C, and from the cabbage family.

With activities ranging from cooking and nutrition classes for healthy, easy-to-prepare foods to low-fat dessert recipe contests, the focus is making healthy food choices fun and delicious.

"We're excited about focusing on the hope the next generation brings," said Pat Callahan, chairman of the Quad-Cities Unit. "That's why we're targeting our good nutrition message to tweens. The society aims to teach the importance of a good diet at a young age."

The American Cancer Society wants everyone, especially our children, that healthy food is also fun food."

National employees feel 'Schnuckered' by buyout

National Super Market employees are concerned about getting shortchanged in a sale review the proposed buyout by Schnuck Markets.

"We can't say anything, but Schnucks can encourage their employees to write to the Federal Trade Commission to file the buyout," a National employee who requested anonymity said. "Schnucks can even buy the envelopes and stamps for their letters. They are furnishing them at the courtesy counter."

Schnucks has agreed to buy 60 National supermarkets in Missouri and Illinois, including stores in Granite City, Collinsville and Edwardsville.

The deal would double the number of Schnucks stores in St. Louis, giving the chain about half the major chain supermarket market.

The buyout was announced Jan. 16 and needs FTC agreement that there are no antitrust violations resulting from reduced competition in specific areas.

FTC assistant director Ron Rowe of the Bureau of Competition in Washington said the sale has generated a "great deal" of public interest but that none of the calls he has received favor the

"We are in the process of investigating the sale and will make an announcement as soon as something is decided," he said, without estimating when that will be.

National employees had gathered 6,000 names on petitions by late January then were told to end their checkout-counter campaign against the sale or face possible loss of severance pay.

National employees feel handcuffed while Schnucks has been silent on the post-mail that encourage employees to write the FTC, another National worker said.

"It upsets me," the employee said. "As far as I know, it's America. But feel First Amendment rights to free speech is being ignored."

"I can respect National's wishes to keep petitions out of the stores, but we should be able to petition our own government."

Schnucks Markets spokeswoman Marie Cusay said National employees are free to forward personal comments but are banned by the sale agreement from campaigning publicly against the buyout.

According to the contract between National's parent company, Loblow Companies Ltd. of Toronto, and Schnuck Markets, no employees can work publicly against the agreement, she said.

"There is also a difference between an individual calling or writing and an organized campaign in public. Information and signatures at the checkout counter," she said.

National workers said Schnucks Markets has encouraged its employees to call in their support for the buyout to U.S. Attorney General Tim Ryan's office in Granite City and East St. Louis, Illinois and Missouri attorneys general announced plans last month to join the sale review for antitrust standards.

Douglas Gandy, a citizen's advocate in Ryan's East St. Louis office, said the phones began ringing last week.

"It's gone crazy since Monday afternoon. We called the Chicago office and they told us to take names and addresses and then asked whether we were for or against the sale. We have had callers from as far as Alton, Edwardsville and Troy," she said.

Venture's

Voellinger*M-C oldtimers revel in stories

The pleasures of oldtimers gatherings include the stories... The setting was Florida — a spring training site in 1945. The batter: Joe DiMaggio. The pitcher: Les Mueller, a Detroit Tigers rookie from Belleville.

THE COUNT: two strikes, one ball. The pitch? "One," said DiMaggio, what he could expect. Mueller's fastball reputation had preceded him.

"It was a curveball right down the middle," Mueller said recently at the annual Mon-Clair League Oldtimer's Day.

Strike three? "No," said Mueller. "He took the pitch and with two outs, I was ready to walk toward the dugout, but the umpire called 'Ball'."

The next pitch was a fastball, and in the only at-bat DiMaggio had against Mueller, the Hall of Famer grounded out to third base.

"It seems like yesterday," said Mueller, who later was a member of the Tigers' 1945 World Series champions after a remarkable year in which he set a major league record by pitching 192 2/3 innings in one game.

Mueller also recalled his at-bat in the exhibition game against the Yankees, when the umpire not only reminded him that the pitch was "pretty good" but also reminded the pitcher that DiMaggio was the batter.

EXTRA INNINGS: In a game similar to the Mon-Clair event, Richard "Foz" Ryan of O'Fallon is attempting to put together a summer picnic for May 18, featuring all the legends in the area, including the East St. Louis Jaycees, Muny, Inter-City and Fountain of Youth leagues.

Persons interested in attending the July 18 (Sunday) noon picnic at the Columbia City Park are urged to contact Ryan at 652-2222 or 652-2222; Charlie Hopkins at 281-5444; Arnold DeMarste at 398-4083 or Howard Dartt at 344-8321.

"We don't care if they're former players, umpires, coaches, managers or fans," said Ryan. "We just want to get together and reminisce."

The cost will be $10 per person, with refreshments included. Ryan also is urging persons to bring scrapbooks or photos of a favorite relative, as "when baseball was the ball."

AMONG THE Graphbook items Ryan showed were one from the 1985 East St. Louis Journal noting Ray Perry of Troy as the I-C batting champ with a .500 average followed by a .474 compiled by second baseman Ryan McAttee Glass.

That year's I-C All-Star game was a Sunday in which the Red Stars overcame a 5-2 deficit at Troy with a four-run ninth, featuring a three-run triple by Howard Etheridge.

The pitcher for the winners was Dal Maxwell, who was hitless in the all-star game but finished the regular season with a .381 average for Sacred Heart of Granite City.

GC grapplers place second in IKWF state tourney

After watching his team eliminate the three-time defending Illinois state champions Saturday, Granite City Wrestling Club coach Allen Kirgan was hoping history wouldn't repeat itself.

But for the second straight year, Granite City fell to the Illinois Ring of Fighting Federation state finals and settled for a second-place finish after a hard-fought 54-45 loss to the Little Celtics.

IT WAS THE first dual-meet loss of the season for Granite City, which gave the Little Celtics all they could handle before falling short. Both teams won 10 of 20 weight classes in a match that pitted the two top-ranked teams in Illinois at Willowbrook High School in suburban Chicago.

Granite City, ranked second, got off to a strong start by winning four of its first 10 weight classes. But the top-ranked Little Devils rallied and won several key matches to overtake Granite City.

"It wasn't nip and tuck," Kirgan said. "We didn't get any breaks. The kids were really down."

Still, Granite City won its first-round match and then managed to defeat Villa Park for the fourth time this season. Villa Lombard defeated Granite City 79-18 for its third straight state title last year.

ON SATURDAY, Granite City won 57-45. Heavyweight Ben Temple capped off the victory with a win by pinfall in the final match. Temple, who won all three of his matches Saturday, pinned his opponent in 11 seconds to give Granite City some momentum heading into the finals.

"Our boys really got up for it and gave everything they had," Kirgan said. "We probably wrestled the three best teams."

Silver outlasts Gold in M-S All-Star game

By Tim Woods

Lindbergh's Keith Walden was plenty subbed while dressing the Mid-St. Louis Mid-Sates Club Hockey Association Senior All-Star Game.

"You think about all the great players in the room who you're going to be up against," said Walden, who skated for the Silver team. "But I'm not blessed with a lot of talent. I know I have to work hard to get anything done on the ice."

But Walden acquitted himself just fine. The gritty play of him and his teammates on the fourth forward line (CFC's Brian Bennett and John Burmanns, Rich Homan) had much to do with the Silver team's 6-4 victory at Webster Groves Recreation Center.

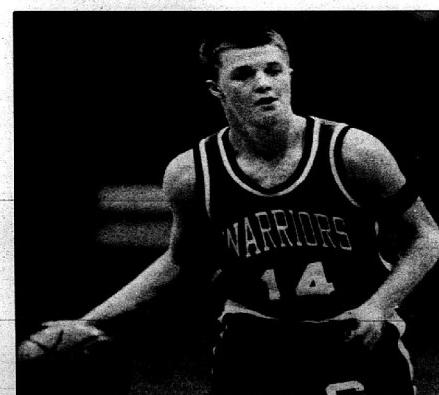

THAT TRIO COMBINED for the only two goals of the first period and sent the Silver squad on to its first All-Star win in three tries.

"I thought those kids did a great job," said Silver coach Kevin McGlynn of Vianney. "We knew we'd be strong in the middle, with four pretty good

Racing season set to begin at Gateway

Although winter still has the area in its grip, officials of Gateway International Raceway have been busy formulating both long-term development plans and a comprehensive schedule of events for the upcoming 1995

Motorsports enthusiasts will have plenty of opportunities to enjoy Gateway's facilities, including a quarter-mile drag strip and 2.2-mile road circuit this year, with racing action scheduled to get under way in mid-March and continuing through early November.

Although relocation and major reconstruction of the facility's drag strip and access roads to both land and rail, general manager Robin Weinrich has announced that existing facilities — including grandstand seating, concession areas and restrooms — will be substantially upgraded, to meet management's commitment of providing a family-oriented atmosphere.

"ALONG THOSE lines," Weinrich continued, "we will be upgrading our food service and menu, improving lighting and security services and marketing our facilities to the general public by creating a friendly, family-oriented environment."

WEATHER PERMITTING, the completion date is scheduled for late spring.

"Since November, when Automotive Safety and Transportation Systems, Inc. (ASTS) assumed control of Gateway International Raceway, we have been working non-stop with our colleagues at the Grand Prix Association of Long Beach (Calif.) to prepare for the upcoming racing season," Weinrich said.

"We are firmly committed to bringing major-league motorsports to St. Louis."

"Although completion of our new drag strip and road course will take some time, our first step toward achieving our ultimate goal is to demonstrate our commitment to race fans, community groups and the surrounding community by creating a friendly, family-oriented environment."

Four Granite City High School wrestling seniors will compete in a closer last week with out a final Illinois state tournament appearance will cross-state Thursday night for another year.

The East-West All-Star Meet, a wrestling tournament featuring the top high school seniors from both the Midwest and the Metro East, will kick off at 7 p.m. Thursday at Meramec Community College in St. Louis County.

Granite City seniors Tim Fullerton, Sean Brian Schooley and Tony Buchek have been selected to compete for the Metro East squad and will take on some of the top wrestlers from St. Louis. The Warriors' season ended last week after the Illinois

High School Association canceled the remainder of the Class AA dual team series and state tournament.

THE WARRIORS ended the season 25-0 and ranked first in both Illinois and the St. Louis area. The IHSA's decision to cancel the state tournament brought an end to the prep careers of Fullerton, Slay, Schooley and Buchek.

The meet, which is sponsored by the Granite City Wrestling Club, has given the top seniors from both sides of the river a chance to square off following state competition for the past 15 years. This year, the lack of a state tournament in Illinois gives the Warriors some added incentive.

centers. But you don't go in expecting to get a couple of goals from your fourth line."

The Silver team, which also got shutout goaltending from Fox's Dusty Harwell in the opening period, led 4-1 after two frames, then quickly repelled brief Gold rallies in the third.

"We came close. We started thinking we could win it and maybe it was just a shootout," said the Gold's Stuart MacArthur, the dazzler from Parkway West, who had a goal and two assists in the first period, but kept his team in the hunt. "It was just a lot of fun out there."

Harwell, who last week received the annual Louis Blum Memorial Scholarship Award, kept the Gold from enjoying it too much early on. He made 12 saves in the opening stanza.

"It's kind of scary, being the (starting) goalie and knowing you're up against a lot of great players," Harwell said. "You know you've got the best team in front of you there. That gives you a lot of confidence. All you have to do is make the first save."

Meanwhile, Walden started the play with the Silver's first goal when he carried across the blue line, then absorbed a hit while dishing to Harriman. Harriman passed to Belvoir, who pounced on Gold starting goaltender Chris Pountz of Webster Groves 3 minutes, 34 seconds in.

Later, at the 8:36 mark, Walden converted on a breakaway, taking a pass from Harriman as Gold defenseman Ilie Ilen of Pattonville tried to intervene.

Some of Mid-States' most talented individuals failed to put their stride in the second period. The Silver's Rob Kellogg (CBC) turned in an end-to-end first tally, by John Velasco (Hazelwood East) at 4:01.

In the second period MacArthur began making his mark.

He fed Jim Adelman (Ladue) at the right point for a goal at 1:47 that cut Gold's deficit to 4-2. Gold then won the slot and scored to keep things close, at 5-3. And he set up Trevor Henry (Parkway Central) for the game's final goal at 14:19.

"It's great playing with guys like (MacArthur). They make you look good," Henry said. "A lot of them knew each other already from playing club (hockey) before."

Henry had an outstanding moment in his own right, putting up an empty-net two-on-one with time winding down after Gold coach Jack Behan (Parkway) said he had planned a goal for Brian Napier (Granite City) in favor of a six attacker. Henry went to his knees to deflect a pass from the Silver's Mark Paluszak (Villa) and was stopped by Brad Danzey (Mehlville).

"That's kind of challenge," Henry said. "You can't be in that situation."

"It was just a lot of fun to watch these kids play and to watch their last high school game with them."

Horoscope

Wednesday, March 8

The loquacious Gemini moon fires bright conversation and sparkling social fun. Catch up on local news over lunch. The moon's morning harmony with gentle Venus spreads a soothing glow over your day. In the evening, the moon's magnetic pull (feeling tugs against Jupiter (expansion) — throw off vexing chains. A heart-to-heart with your mate resolves a freedom-limiting issue and gives more autonomy to you both.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Your competitive spirit leads the charge. Exciting new projects feed your get-ahead drive and push you toward success. You're free of self-defeating attitudes. Lingering childhood patterns could hinder your climb.

TAURUS (April 20-May 18). You're a fountain of wisdom. Colleagues rightly trust your judgment, seeking your sound financial advice. Your wealth mustrooms through a co-investment with a savvy chum. Your mate needs space.

GEMINI (May 19-June 17). Your delightful dementia heralds an exhilarating new romance. Money links with love in a spicy getaway dovelts perfectly with a lucrative business trip out of town. Just for fun, send hot-off-the-press updates to pals.

CANCER (June 18-July 22). Plunge into serious love. Enveloped in folds of delicious intimacy, you and your mate will surely commit. Attached crabs renew ecstasy in secluded digs. Be courageous about money tips — a lead may be based on non-facts.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Fly-wheeling lions are eager to play. Speculations on sports and leisure activities links income to fun — but watch the gambling urge. Invest in a casino instead — make others' risks your gain. Your amorous overture succeeds.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (March 8). Roar into action. A sexy April romance has a financial advantage — related gains come through marriage or family. By August, you're free of the blues after your project is complete. Keep your budget in line. A career drive makes fabulous progress after July. Improving your attitude brings more impressive gains in your private life. Your lucky numbers are 1 and 18.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Your superb organizational skills put you in line for a better job. Push your luck. Setting your sights high is the key to moving up. Dump that self-effacing attitude — it holds you back. Love with a romantic Capricorn can last.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22). A new love possibility tickles your fancy and revamps your evening plans. A spontaneous double date summons with latent surprise — each partner falls for his or her companion's date. All share ecstatic bliss.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21). Your magnetic presence intrigues suitors and hints at a soul-searching romance. A potential hitch: Scorpions' overprotective nature, too jealously guarding their private turf. Ease your territorial attitude.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Heroic tenacity powers a determined effort to succeed. You're a natural at dazzling wins for the team. Big-money players ride a competitive crest to a sudden wallet-plumping success. Take a lucky tip from a chum.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Your subdued style takes on fresh pizzazz. You're the clever, charismatic profiteer. Deepen productive friendships as you climb — tried-and-true alliances are invaluable in the years ahead.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). You're in your element and raking in dough. Developments in science and electronics bring lucky investments or a super job. In a wink, you're smashingly rich. A prosperous crowd accepts you as one of its own.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20). The glow of a lover's hope flares into a luminous flame — suddenly, you're a central character in a storybook romance. A trip brings you luck, and an old, familiar setting is the stage for a successful scheme.

There's more to trivia than just knowing your lines

By Kevin Carberry
Staff writer

Reciting lines from movies is something of a hobby for my friends and me.

Maybe we are nerds, but that's none of your business.

Anyway, we take great delight in reciting favorite film moments, such as the Elton speech in "National Lampoon's Animal House." After another character suggests that it's too late to do anything about getting kicked out of school, John Goodman, as Bluto, responds, "Over?"

Did you say over? Nothing is over unless we decide it is. It was over when the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor. Hell, no.

And it ain't over now. Because when the going gets tough — the tough get going. Who's with me?

Let's go.

I may have mixed up a few of the words, but you get the drift.

This week's trivia quiz is based on analogies from films.

I've tried to steer the questions as close to the original as possible, but I've lost too many brain cells through the years to be able to remember every single word.

The way this works is that I'll give you a line. You have to guess the film it is from in order to get credit.

1. "It's not the years. It's the mileage."

2. "Where shall I go? What shall I do?"

3. "We're putting on the foil."

4. "How many of you cried when Old Yeller died?"

5. "Where'd you get the cocaine?"

6. "LaFong, Carl LaFong, Capital L, small A, capital E, small O, small N, small G, LaFong."

7. "I'm sorry! You've broken my pointer!"

8. "We're on a mission from God."

9. "Looks like I picked the wrong week to quit sniffing glue."

10. "Listen, anything you'd have to say about your mother-in-law, you don't have to explain to me. You know what I mean? It's like if she were a star of a real crummy horror movie, I'd believe it."

ANSWERS: 1. "Raiders of the Lost Ark." Indiana Jones says this after his girlfriend tells him he's not the man she used to know.

2. "Gone with the Wind." After Scarlett says this, Rhett says he doesn't give a damn.

3. "Slap Shot." The Hanson brothers put foil on their hands to prepare for fighting in their hockey game.

4. "Stripes." Bill Murray, as Joe, asks this of his platoon members when they start fighting each other.

5. "Monty Python and the Holy Grail." A castle guard asks this to King Arthur in a hilarious scene too complicated to be explained here.

6. "It's a Gift." A salesman keeps repeating the name LaFong to W.C. Fields, who is trying to sleep. This is one of my favorite movie moments of all time.

7. "A Shot in the Dark." Inspector Clouseau says this to his assistant after hitting him with the pointed gun.

8. "The Blues Brothers." Dan Aykroyd, as Elwood, keeps telling girls to people when he and his brother try to get their old band back together.

9. "Airplane!" Lloyd Bridges, as an airport administrator, says this during a stressful situation.

10. "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World." Jonathan Winters says this about Ethel Merman when Milton Berle tries to explain why he left him behind on the highway.

Veterans hold 34th annual reunion in Collinsville

The Quality Inn in Collinsville was the site of a 34th annual reunion of the Army's Company "F," 363rd Regiment, 91st Division, which was hosted by Damian Caffrey Sr. of Pontoon Beach. The reunion was held in September.

This unit served in Italy during World War II from July 1944 until the end of the war in Italy in May 1945. The unit participated in three major campaigns: Sicily, Anzio Campaign, North Apennines Campaign and the Po Valley Campaign. The unit was cited with numerous citations and decorations.

This unit meets yearly in the hometown of one of the members. Each reunion is planned two years in advance. In 1995, the group will meet in Elk Grove Village, Ill., sponsored by Bill Wurth's widow, Sonja, and assisted by Bill and Dorothy Vezensky and widow Esther Sperry.

The 1994 reunion was held in Julian, Pa. Sightseeing was enjoyed by some members who journeyed for a tour through Anheuser-Busch Brewery in south St. Louis and ride on the Casino Queen cruise ship St. Louis. The balance of their spare time was spent in reminiscing.

On Saturday night, the annual business meeting was held in Art Veltman's home in Julian. During the meeting, Russell McElveen, assisted by Howard Weaver, conducted the yearly candlelight memorial service for fallen comrades lost in combat as well as civilian life.

After the business meeting, the annual banquet, served in the "dinner in the pool area," was enjoyed by 48 members, their spouses, wives, families and friends. Group pictures were also taken. In the evening, the group viewed the VCR tapes of the 1993 and 1994 meetings.

Then, the members who would be departing early Sunday morning, said their farewells until next year's meeting.

One surprise was the arrival of Bill Dixon of Oklahoma and Bob Waters of Wisconsin, along with their wives.

In the military

Zacharie Lawson

Zacharie J. Lawson of House Springs, Mo., has joined the U.S. Army.

Private Lawson has received the Army's written guarantee that he will receive training in the job specialty of his choice, combat swimmer.

Lawson, who will graduate from Fox High School in May, will take basic and advanced individual training at Fort Okla., reporting for duty June 25.

He is the son of Leonard Lawson of House Springs and Dianne Meyer of Granite City.

Jay Hanks

Air Force Reserve Senior Airman Jay A. Hanks has graduated from the structural specialist course at Sheppard Air Force Base in Wichita Falls, Texas.

Students were taught construction and maintenance of wood and masonry structures and the maintenance and use of structural tools and equipment.

Also included in the training were interpretation of construction drawings, compilation of bills of material, bricklaying and concrete, plastering of moving nearly 500 miles a day.

Hanks' involvement in the training is an example of how the Navy and the Army team is designed to operate overseas and respond quickly whenever needed.

Whether delivering humanitarian assistance, cargo or supplies from the sea, naval forces provide a unique crisis-response option, which can be withdrawn quickly when no longer needed.

Taylor joined the Air Force in June 1988. He is a 1988 graduate of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville with a bachelor of science degree.

in a wide range of missions including rescuing downed pilots and performing search and rescue.

While in the Adriatic Sea, all of the MEU units traveled south with USS Gunston Hall and USS Ponce 1,000 miles to North Africa for a combined amphibious landing exercise of Morocco.

So far during deployment, the 22nd MEU has visited France, Portugal, Spain, Morocco and Albania.

Equipped with helicopters, high-speed, air-cushioned assault hovercraft, amphibious assault vehicles and conventional landing craft, the 22nd MEU and its MEU-SOC are formidable force capable of moving nearly 500 miles a day.

Taylor's involvement in the training is an example of how the Navy and the Army team is designed to operate overseas and respond quickly whenever needed.

Joseph Judd

Joseph T. Judd Jr. of Granite City has joined the U.S. Army and will receive training in the job specialty of his choice, cannon crewman.

Private Judd, a 1984 graduate of Granite City High School, will take basic training and advanced individual training at Fort Sill, Okla., reporting for duty April 4.

He is the son of Joseph Judd Sr. and Shirley Judd of Granite City.

Tony Edwards

Navy Seaman Recruit Tony D. Edwards, son of George A. Dorste of Madison, recently completed U.S. Navy basic training at Recruit Training Command, Great Lakes, Ill.

During the eight-week program, Edwards completed a variety of training which included classroom study, practical hands-on instruction and an emphasis on physical fitness. In particular, Edwards learned how to control a boat, fire fighting, water safety and survival and a variety of safety skills required for working around ships and aircraft.

Edwards and other recruits also received instruction on the Navy's core values — honor, courage and commitment; and what those words mean in guiding personal and professional conduct.

Edwards joins 55,000 men and women who will enter the Navy this year from all over the country.

Men and women train together from their first day in the Navy, just as they do aboard ships and at shore bases around the world.

To reinforce the team concept, Birks and other recruits also were trained in preventing sexual harassment and ensure equal opportunity.

Fresh Picks

It's no wonder lemons are always available juicy and fresh. A tree usually yields 100 pounds of fruit a year, so it's easy to keep freshened up a bowl of lemons in the kitchen, dining room or bathroom. Add freshly grated peel to plain low-fat yogurt to make a dip, dressing or topping for seafood, fresh fruit or raw vegetables. Odors — like onion, fish or household bleach — can be removed from hands by rubbing with a lemon wedge. A medium lemon, which yields about 3 tablespoons juice, can be juiced most easily at room temperature. Microwave on high power 20 to 40 seconds until just warm to the touch or roll it on a counter with the palm of the hand to soften the fruit for juicing.

Big Fat Tip

When eating at a fast-food restaurant, an alternative to overeating high-fat foods is to eat a smaller amount — such as a hamburger or non-sauced sandwich without fries — and later add a low-fat snack like fresh fruit, pretzels or a bagel.

Cooks seem to be baking less and enjoying it more. In 1988, forty-three percent of 35- to 39-year-old women were hobby bakers, but only 39 percent of the same women baked for fun in 1993. (Source: Quaker Foresight)

Preparing cookie dough in a central baking facility economizes time and energy for school lunchroom workers. Chef Walter Kobylecky, of the St. Louis Chefs de Cuisine recommended the Wentzville School District use a manual machine to prepare the dough by the dozen. Baked cookies can be delivered to schools, but he urges individual schools to bake frozen dough and let the aroma waft through the halls to entice children to come to the cafeteria for a hot, nutritious lunch. Here, Kobylecky and Betty Palmer check on cookies formed by the new machine.

ABCs of school lunch

By Janice Denham

The lunchroom alphabet sometimes starts with A for Apple that someone — B — brings from home. Now some districts have a new capital C — Chefs who give the lunchroom staff tips on how to entice those skittish little appetites to eat a warm lunch.

Kids' Cuisine

Here is the dilemma, according to Jordan Mavromatis, coordinator of a food service staff of 180 for the large Rockwood School District.

"There is 20 minutes when the bell rings. It takes three to four minutes to queue up. That leaves 12 minutes or less to consume lunch. The big guys 'hoof' it down, but the little ones want recess, so what can they eat in six minutes?"

St. Louis Chefs de Cuisine is helping the Greater St. Louis School Food Service Directors Association and school staffs find answers to the question.

Walter Kobylecky, public relations director of the chefs' group, oversees the project and personally has helped the people who keep readin', writin' and rhythmic flowing on nutritiously-filled tummies.

"There are a lot of people who feel school lunch is getting a bad rap. We decided this would be a good community project for our established and younger Nutty-rich flavor is what tasters found in Schnucks pecan shortbread cookies.

Shortbread cookies long on rich flavor

Journal tasters were saying "Cookies, cookies on the shelf, is this one I should pick for myself?" when they tested Schnucks Private Label cookies.

The premium cookies were packaged with an inner wrapper around a plastic form to keep individual cookies intact. The package had been moved to several bags before it came to the tasting, so the outside looked worn around the edges, but every cookie was in perfect form.

for seconds. The word "rich" came up often when taste was discussed.

"Every cookie has lots of individual pieces of real pecans and you can really taste the pecans in it," one taster said.

Another noted their appearance.

"They all look alike with a little bit of toasted darkness on the top," another said.

The 19-ounce package of Schnucks pecan shortbread cookies at $2.29 sat alongside a 17-ounce national brand with the same flavors priced at $2.99.

"I think these are as good tasting," a tester said. She added that after in the course of tasting several types of snacks, part of the "Private Label Test Run," the private label brands consistently perform as well as more expensive national brands.

The test did not end until the remaining cookies were put away.

The package has a paper-covered wire on the end to keep the package closed and airtight.

Popcorn true national pastime?

The entrance to a mall, movie theater or conference center is more enticing when it holds the aroma of popcorn.

Popcorn is one of America's favorite snacks. We eat more than 500 million pounds of it each year. Midwesterners win the prize for eating more popcorn than people in any other region.

Its popularity is easy to track. It is low in cost, easy to store, delicious to eat, generally low in fat and calories and contains fiber.

Attacking popcorn is like cutting down motherhood and apple pie.

When movie popcorn received bad press over its high saturated fat content, many food processors facing heart disease reaction was swift. Theaters that use healthier oils promoted their popcorn intensely. Others changed to "better" fats.

While many people enjoy movie popcorn, actually 63 percent of popcorn consumed is popped and eaten at home.

Many methods have been used to pop it. In spite of many manufactured poppers over the years, the old-fashioned "shaking the pot over the flame" method was most popular.

When the microwave oven gained a foothold in American kitchens, everyone seemed to want to use it to pop corn. Unfortunately, at first it was not safe. Popping it in brown paper bag often produced kernels that had gone off. Popcorn ignited. Seeing a ready market, food manufacturers jumped in with microwave-safe, pre-bagged popcorn, which became an instant hit.

A new type of domed microwave popcorn popper came on the market last year. Dishwasher-safe, it works very well with or without oil. A concentrator in the base next to the kernels becomes hot and causes moisture in the kernels to heat and pop. It pops nearly all the popcorn kernels.

Betty Serati specializes in microwave cooking.

than others. A centralized baking area in the Mehlinville schools now can manually roll out 2,500 dozen rounds of cookie dough at a time for baking or freezing. Some students made gingerbread with chefs in their classrooms at holiday time.

Elementary students in Hazelwood schools have watched chefs carve birds from potatoes, while the students learn to eat mashed potatoes. Cooks in Rockwood schools learned to clean grills more quickly so they want to use them more often. Wentzville meals look more attractive.

"We are trying to make these people look smarter, not harder," Kobylecky says.

Even though few students can leave schools for lunch, he sees fast food as their strongest competitor. He urges school food workers to fine-tune copies of favorite foods children eat at those restaurants. In fact, many schools now have a brand-name pizza or hamburger day regularly — a hot seller in the cafeteria.

Imitation is a sincere form of flattery, so he recommends schools advertising kids' favorites — meatball sandwiches, chicken fingers and fresh-baked cookies. Bread sticks à la Italian restaurants replace dinner rolls, while ice cream is piped instead of scooped into cones. He urges schools with insignias to use them to hype lunchroom food.

Rick Mariam is director of food service in Pattonville Schools. Still, he sees ways for chefs to help his staff. He asked for it in design — anything that attracts attention. On a staff development day in February, chefs Jim Day, Ed Lillard and Kobylecky videotaped a workshop on catering methods for use in Pattonville and other schools.

"We have one day a month when we have a chef for a day. That doesn't mean it's a chef as in a guest server or from the principal to anybody special. In December, they sent a number of chefs to our elementary schools to be servers," he said. Some sculpted fruit while they were there.

Mariam will use the chefs' services again at eight elementary schools March 14.

"We and the chefs are from two dramatically different areas of food service. There is only a limited amount of time for us to work on the creation of the meal itself," he adds.

Mariam's motivation is to provide food to organizations using Pattonville schools, as well as to those outside the school. He sees this as possible insurance if funding is reduced under federal plans to dismantle the school lunch and breakfast programs and put it in state or private hands.

Check cupboard to find enticing flavors of fruit

A recent spurt of warm weather turned my thoughts to fresh fruits. However, all year long, it is easy to tantalize my taste buds with combinations of fruit from a can, as well as the fresh produce counter.

Pineapple chunks mixed with mandarin oranges and sliced kiwi fruit, pear halves topped with cranberry-orange relish, bananas sprinkled with fresh or frozen strawberries and blueberries and frozen raspberries or bing cherries all carry a personal stamp of approval from my taste buds.

The American Heart Association and other health organizations regularly tell people to eat more fruit and vegetables. Supermarkets post reminders on signs, bags and cards all over the produce section.

According to the Food Guide Pyramid, we need to eat servings of fruit daily to provide enough nutrients for good health. A serving of fruit consists of a medium piece of fresh fruit, a wedge of melon, 1/4 cup juice, 1/2 cup canned or 1/4 cup dried fruit.

Fruits usually are eaten chilled or at room temperature. For a touch of warmth on a chilly day, serve them heated, such as in Warm Curried Fruit Compote. Curry adds to its colorful tang and zest.

Curry is a mixture of spices, usually ginger, coriander, cardamom, cumin, turmeric and paprika/coriander. Paprika, cayenne, cinnamon, cloves and mustard seeds also can contribute. Available in powder or paste form, curry ranges in strength from the hot ones of Madras to milder Indonesian varieties. Start with a little to see what individual taste buds desire.

A fruit compote can accompany a meal, serve as a snack or satisfy a sweet tooth as dessert. This one is rich in vitamin C, vitamin A (beta-carotene) and carbohydrates. Fruits, even canned, are low in sodium.

According to the "American Heart Association Cookbook," fifth edition, it conveniently makes a large quantity that can be kept up to a week in the refrigerator. Between meals a bowlful can be eaten chilled for a quick pick-me-up.

Citrus drink: sunshine refresher

Jeanine Waldron, Waterloo, Ill., is winner of this week's recipe contest for Spiced Pineapple Cooler. For it she wins a prize of $100 and a certificate at the Pasta House Co.

She found the recipe 30 years ago in a magazine with frosty summer drinks. However, she primarily serves it during the winter, particularly during the holidays. She suggests using a non-alcoholic cooler with this type of fruit from appetizers to buffers to quench thirst.

Recipes in the Spring Fruits and Vegetables Recipe Contest will be accepted through March 31 for consideration as winner of the four weeks in April.

Send one recipe per household to: Spring Fruits and Vegetables Recipe Contest, 1714 Deer Tracks Trail, St. Louis, Mo. 63131. Any type of dish that uses traditional spring ingredients — such as strawberries, rhubarb, asparagus or spring greens or onions — will be considered.

Type or print the recipe leaving a wide margin on the side of the paper. Include name, address and telephone number on the entry. Name the Journal you receive. Be sure to double-check the recipe as it is written for both amounts and directions, including any variations that make this dish special.

If there is a history to the recipe, it will be considered part of the entry. It will be part of the basis for selecting winners, along with taste and eye appeal. Originality will be considered, although a recipe need not be original. If possible, name the source of the recipe.

Winners are notified by mail. Duplicate entries will be considered on the basis of earlier entry or best compliance with the rules.

Kobylecky says that is why eating at school should be as enjoyable as a home-cooked meal — complete with the aroma of freshly-baked cinnamon rolls and cookies coming from the kitchen.

Correction

The topping instructions for the Blue Ribbon Cook column in the March 1 food section was inadvertently cut out in some Journal newspapers.

The topping includes 1/2 cup brown sugar, 3 tablespoons butter and 2 tablespoons milk to boil. Boil 30 seconds. Note: Ingredients can be doubled and cake baked in 13-by-9-inch baking pan.

Rice and noodles mingle with super-duper soups

Rice and pasta are standard fare in most homes today. In the time it cooks, other dishes can be ready to make a meal.

Letting it absorb flavor along with moisture is the procedure for Souper Rice.

Regular long grain rice takes about 20 minutes to heat once it comes to a boil with a can of soup and extra water.

In Chicken-Noodle Parmesan, noodles can be cooked ahead of time or while other ingredients are prepared. Actual heating time is about 10 minutes.

CHICKEN-NODDLE PARMESAN

1 can (10 1/2 oz.) cream of chicken and broccoli soup
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup grated parmesan cheese
Pinch pepper

3 cups uncooked medium egg noodles
2 cups cubed cooked chicken or turkey
Chopped fresh parsley

Cook noodles according to package directions. Drain.

In 3-quart saucepan, combine soup, milk, cheese and pepper. Add noodles and chicken. Over low heat, heat through, stirring occasionally.

Garnish with parsley. Makes 4 1/2 cups or 4 servings.

SOUPER RICE

1 can (10 1/2 oz.) vegetable soup
1 1/2 cups cans water
1 cup uncooked long grain rice

In 2-quart saucepan, combine soup, water and rice. Over medium heat, heat to boiling.

Reduce heat to low. Cook, covered, 20 minutes or until rice is tender and liquid is absorbed, stirring occasionally.

Makes about 3 1/2 cups or 4 servings.

LITE FETTUCCINE ALFREDO

In medium saucepan over high heat, whisk together 1 1/2 cups milk; 2 small cloves garlic, minced; 1/2 teaspoons flour, and 1/2 tablespoons nonfat cream cheese.

Bring to boil, whisking constantly. Reduce heat.

Simmer 2 minutes or until thickened.

Add 1 cup grated parmesan cheese. Whisk until blended. Remove from heat.

Stir 5 teaspoons butter-flavored sprinkles.

Pour sauce over 4 cups hot cooked fettuccine.

Garnish with fresh parsley and black pepper.

Makes four (1-cup) servings; 310 calories, 17 g protein, 5 g fat, 48 g carbohydrate, 56 mg sodium and 15 mg cholesterol each.

Soup adds creaminess and flavor to rice in the same time it takes to cook it.

TUNA MAC SALAD

Make a hearty, flavorful macaroni salad by mixing drained canned tuna, chopped celery, chopped ripe olives, nonfat sour cream or yogurt and low-fat mayonnaise. Season to taste.

WOOD RIVER TOWNSHIP HOSPITAL COMMUNITY REPORT

President's report

Jerry Bolandis

Partnership with SLU is helping WRTH expand its services

I'm pleased to announce the second phase of our Hospital's partnership with St. Louis University. We have signed a prestigious team of orthopedic surgeons from St. Louis University Hospital to practice here in Wood River.

This team will be led by Dr. Robert Burdige, the chairman of orthopedic surgery at St. Louis University School of Medicine.

This announcement is part of our ongoing strategy to offer the people of this area convenient access to the finest health care in the St. Louis region.

It is also a key component of our five-year plan to take the Hospital off the tax rolls. Approximately 1/13 of our annual operating expenses—$2 million—comes from local property taxes. Our ultimate goal is to reduce and then eliminate that tax support. Last summer, the Hospital's Board of Directors approved a plan to restructure the Hospital's long-term bonded debt and reduce our operating costs through a self-insurance fund.

That decision gave the Hospital the resources to begin making important improvements which have helped us recruit new doctors, offer new services and upgrade our facilities and equipment. These new services will attract new patients to the Hospital and help our bottom line. As the Hospital's finances continue to improve, we will be able to reduce our tax levy while fulfilling our mission of offering the highest quality health care to the people we serve.

St. Louis University Hospital will open orthopedics center at WRTH

St. Louis University Hospital will be opening a new orthopedics center at Wood River Township Hospital, announced Hospital President Jerry Bolandis.

"I am delighted to announce that we have signed an agreement to bring this outstanding team of surgeons to practice right here in our community. They will dramatically expand the range of orthopedic services available here and offer convenient access to one of St. Louis' top orthopedic departments," Bolandis said.

In addition to offering general orthopedic surgery, the center will be staffed by surgeons with expertise in sports medicine, pediatric orthopedic surgery, orthopedic tumor surgery, hand surgery and spine surgery.

Dr. Robert E. Burdige, the chairman of orthopedic surgery at St. Louis University School of Medicine, will personally lead an impressive team of surgeons at the center.

"We are excited to have a surgeon of Dr. Burdige's caliber and reputation join our staff," Bolandis said. "He is a distinguished surgeon, teacher and researcher who has performed important studies on bone remodeling. Dr.

Burdige is one of only 384 orthopedic surgeons out of more than 25,000 in the nation who have been inducted into the American Orthopaedic Association in recognition of his contributions to the field of orthopedic medicine."

He continued, "In addition to Dr. Burdige's national reputation, he is well-known locally for his work in sports medicine. He is the physician-in-charge for the University's athletic department and is a member of the St. Louis University athletic Hall of Fame. He also is the former team physician for the St. Louis Stars and the St. Louis Steamer."

Dr. Burdige himself is a graduate of the St. Louis University School of Medicine. He now directs the University's resident training program. His clinical work has included research into sports medicine, joint replacement, and bone infections.

"Dr. Burdige and his team will be a welcome addition to the local medical community."

The center will open in just a few weeks. Appointments for patients to see one of the orthopedic surgeons may be made by calling 254-3821.

Board of Directors goal is to take Hospital off tax rolls in five years

In 1994, the Board of Directors of Wood River Township Hospital approved a long-term strategy that has placed the Hospital on solid financial footing, and over the course of five years, is intended to take the Hospital off the tax rolls.

"We faced some difficult decisions last year about the Hospital's future. But the decision we made to refinance the Hospital's long-term debt and raise taxes in the short term to reduce our insurance costs have placed the Hospital on better financial footing, and laid the groundwork to, we believe, take the Hospital off the tax rolls in five years," said Hospital Board Chairman Brad Polaski.

Long-time Board member Dale Brueggemann said, "Like dozens of hospitals all around the State which treat patients regardless of their ability to pay, Wood River suffered substantial losses in the 1980s due to state underfunding of Medicaid and chronic late payment of bills. We have managed to bring our long-term debt under control and move forward."

Board member Terri Haydon said, "We are now working on plans to expand and improve the services we offer to attract new patients and continue to improve the Hospital's bottom line."

Board member George Machino said, "We have made some difficult decisions in the last year but the decisions we made were necessary to save an important community resource."

"The future looks brighter now than ever before for the Hospital," said Board member Jan Fassler. "We're making some important changes to bring to this area the kind of health care services the people of this area want and expect from a first-class health care facility."

Wood River Township taxpayers are eligible for special tax rebate

Wood River Township taxpayers are eligible for a special property tax rebate at Wood River Township Hospital.

Taxpayers receive dollar-for-dollar credit off their medical bills equal to the property taxes they pay to support the Hospital. The credit is applied after all insurance payments and may be used for deductibles, co-payments or other out-of-pocket expenses for patients. Call 254-3821 for more information.

Confused about health insurance?

The issue of health insurance can be complex. Wood River Township Hospital accepts all major health insurance plans, Medicare and Medicaid. In addition, the Hospital is a preferred provider for Blue Cross Alliance, Metropolitan, Physicians Health Plan, Travelers, and Equicor. If you have any questions about insurance or billing, please call the Hospital's financial office at 254-3821.

St. Agatha Church Choir to perform

The St. Agatha Church Choir in St. Louis will make a special appearance at the 10 a.m. Tridentine Latin Mass on Sunday, March 12, at the Immaculate Holy Family Log Church in Cahokia.

The choir, under the direction of its founder and organist, John Martens, has been singing the traditional liturgy every Sunday at St. Martens, located at Ninth and Clay streets in St. Louis. This will be Agatha's, located at Ninth and Clay streets in Cahokia, church that was built in 1799 and the choir's first visit to the historic church that was still in use on the North American continent.

The Holy Family Parish was founded in 1699 and is recognized as being the oldest continuously operating parish in the United States.

"We would much enjoy having visitors to our historic church especially on the occasion of the visit of St. Agatha's choir on March 12," Father John Myler said.
